Dear Defence,

The Chamber takes note of the request by the Defence and the response by the Prosecution.

The Chamber does not object to the delegation visiting the accused on Friday, at the indicated time. However, there is no reason why the visit should be un-monitored. The normal rules set out by the statutory framework regarding visits in the Detention Centre will apply.

As expressed on previous occasions, and as has been indicated by the Defence, the additional necessary requests and arrangements with the ICC Detention Centre still need to be made.

Kind regards,
Trial Chamber IX
